TCDSB committed to keeping St. Joseph's Morrow Park High School in the community

The Toronto Catholic District School Board's lease of St. Joseph's Morrow Park High School has been extended to the end of the 2009- 2010 academic year. The Board leases the high school site from the Sisters of St. Joseph. The Sisters of St. Joseph have announced the sale of the Morrow Park property which includes the St. Joseph's Morrow Park High School.

"The Board wishes to assure the St. Joseph's Morrow Park students, staff and parents that we intend to continue to offer Catholic education in their community." says Oliver Carroll, chair of the Toronto Catholic District School Board. "We are committed to retaining St. Joseph's Morrow Park as a unique school entity within our Board and will explore every possibility to do so."

TCDSB will provide further information to the school community as it becomes available. There will be an opportunity for parents, students and staff to provide input throughout the process.

The Toronto Catholic District School Board educates close to 90,000 students from diverse cultures and language backgrounds in its 201 Catholic elementary and secondary schools and serves 470,375 Catholic school supporters across the City of Toronto.
